

THEY JUDGED HIM

“Shall Christ come out of Galilee? ... Search, and look: for out of Galilee arises no prophet.” (John 7:41b, 52)

Hang-ups! Credibility, in the eyes of some,
Hinges squarely upon from whence you’ve come.
Don’t miss the sarcasm of the religious elite:
Clearly, Galilee, for them, seemed representative of “the other side of the tracks” in Jesus’ day.
Our hang-ups and dismissive attitudes can trap us.
Don’t be so quick to judge people by what you think.
God’s power can spring up from anywhere and in anyone.

When have you been guilty of judging someone’s spirituality based on some external factor that did not really matter?

Excerpted from Gathering the Fragments by Mary Webster
Moore, Ph.D. Copyright © 2017 by Mary Webster Moore, Ph.D. No part of this excerpt may be reproduced or reprinted without written permission from the publisher.